Copyright 2018, Prove They Are Alive! campaign

The international human rights Prove They Are Alive! campaign has been working since 2013 to protect the rights of detainees serving long-term sentences in Turkmen prisons who, since their sentences, have been held incommunicado, and to halt the practice of enforced disappearances in Turkmenistán’s prisons. The campaign acts with the support of the international Civic Solidarity Platform and actively interacts with a broad range of human rights defenders, experts, and inter-governmental organisations, including the United Nations, the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe, and the European Union.

The Prove They Are Alive! campaign thanks the individuals and organizations who have contributed valuable information to this list, many of them anonymously out of necessity. We could not have compiled the list without their support and assistance. The Prove They Are Alive! campaign assumes full responsibility for the contents of the list. While we have made every effort to ensure the accuracy of the information presented in this list, we cannot be held liable for any errors, omissions or inconsistencies.

Introduction

This document updates the Prove They Are Alive! campaign’s list of the disappeared in Turkmenistan’s prisons, increasing the number of disappeared individuals from 112, documented in our previous list in September 2017, to the current number: 113. Two new names have been added while one individual has been taken off the list.

The list of the disappeared is separated into four separate categories: The so called Novemberists (those arrested in connection with the alleged coup attempt against President Niyazov on November 25, 2002), those arrested on charges of “Islamic extremism”, those charged with economic crimes and abuse of power, and civil society activists who have also been disappeared in the Turkmen prison system.

Enforced disappearance is a grave human rights violation, according to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, and is a form of inhuman and degrading treatment both for the disappeared and their families, thus falling also under the scope of the UN Convention against Torture. Turkmenistan has ratified both the Covenant and the Convention, and its constitutional framework stresses that domestic legislation must comply with international law. Turkmen criminal legislation does not permit full isolation of prisoners, regardless of the crime committed. Nevertheless, the authorities impose this cruel and illegal punishment on anyone they consider to be a political threat to their power due to their opinions, influence, or visibility.

The Novemberists

Of the 113 disappeared, 62 Novemberists have disappeared into Turkmenistan’s prison system, nine of whom we know for certain died in prison. Each of these individuals was arrested, tried in court, and disappeared in connection with the alleged coup attempt against President Niyazov, which took place on November 25, 2002. Sixty of these individuals were accused of participation in the alleged coup attempt, and two of them were accused of assisting relatives of the Novemberists in efforts to illegally leave the country and obtain asylum. In all cases, their families have not heard from them since they were disappeared. These individuals have not had access to legal representation or medical care, and they have been given no contact with the outside world. Most of the Novemberists were arrested in November and December 2002, and tried in January 2003. They were given sentences of between twelve years imprisonment to life imprisonment. In addition, several individuals were arrested as part of this case between 2003 and 2005 and given sentences of between 12-14 years to life in prison, although life imprisonment is not a legal punishment in Turkmenistani law.

According to unofficial information from former prisoners of Ovadan Depe prison, all of the Novemberists have been held incommunicado in a special bloc of this prison during Niyazov presidency (President Niyazov died on December 21, 2006), and this practice has continued since then. This is a violation of their sentencing, which states that after 3-5 years (depending on the individual case) these prisoners should be transferred to a regular prison colony.

Those Accused of “Islamic Extremism”

Twenty-three disappeared were accused of “Islamic extremism” and were sentenced to up to 25 years in prison. In several cases, those given sentences of between 2.5 and 3 years were then re-sentenced to longer terms, and the details of these sentences are not known. In some cases, the length of the prison term is not known. Four of the disappeared in this category have died in prison, and verifiable information confirms that they are deceased. The case of Dzhumamurad Berdiev (No. 71), who was disappeared in August 2017 and whose name has been added to the list, is one of the most recent. This demonstrates that disappearance is a crime the government of Turkmenistan continues to perpetrate.

Those Accused of Economic Crimes and Abuse of Power

Twenty-five disappeared were accused of economic crimes and abuse of power. These individuals were arrested in several waves, the first of which took place in 2001, and continued through 2006. We have removed Kurbangeldy Volmuradov (number 91 in the previous version of the list) from the list. Information about Volumuradov’s release from prison in 2013 has been confirmed. The number of individuals in this category who have died in prison, according to verifiable information, has grown to 10. We have received reliable information that Saparmamed Valiev died in prison in August 2017. He was listed under number 90 in the previous list and is listed under number 102 in the current list.

Disappeared Civil Society Activists

The number of civil society activists on our list of the disappeared has grown to three: In addition to Gul Geldy Annaniyazov and Saparmamed Nepeskuliev, we have included journalist and human rights defender Ogulsapar Muradova (№113), who was held incommunicado since her arrest in June 2006, was convicted in August and died in Ovadan-Depe prison in September 2006, most likely as a result of torture. Their stories highlight the extent of the paranoia of the Turkmen authorities, who have gone to extremes to silence what they perceive to be opposition—whether it be in the form of freedom of expression or more direct civic action.

The common threads among the 113 individuals listed in the report are: 1) There has been no verifiable information about whereabouts and condition of these people since their trial, and in some cases, since their arrest. 2) None of them has had any contact with their family, and their families have received no information about their health, circumstance, or whereabouts, in most cases since they were imprisoned. 3) None of them has been seen by legal representation, external medical experts, or international monitoring organizations, including the International Red Cross, since they were imprisoned.

It is clear from the data that the government of Turkmenistan continues to commit the crime of disappearing people in its prisons. The response of the international community must be swift and firm; disappeared prisoners are dying in custody and they are being replaced by new disappeared who bear unspeakable suffering and torture. Their families also suffer torture at not knowing the fates of their loved ones.

We demand that the government of Turkmenistan Prove They Are Alive!

Sentenced to life imprisonment. Several of his friends and co-workers were convicted with him for various prison terms. After the arrest of Begench Beknazrarov, his parents Amandurdy and Raisa Beknazarov, were evicted from Ashgabat and sent to exile in Mary Province.

Current situation: No information. There were rumors that Beknazarov was allegedly killed in prison almost immediately after his trial. According to an unconfirmed report, in December 2003 he was held in custody in the Ministry of National Security in Ashgabat, and in 2005 was held in prison in the city of Turkmenbashi.

8. Berdyev, Batyr Ataevich

Biography: Born on October 3, 1960, in Ashgabat. Ex-Minister of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan. In 1982 graduated from the Turkmen State University. In 1990-1992 was a correspondent in Turkmenistan for the weekly newspapers Soyuz and Zhizn. From 1992 was a consultant of the International Department of the Administration of the President of Turkmenistan. In the same year was appointed Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan. From 1994 – Charge d’Affaires of Arrest and conviction: Arrested on December 7, 2002. Charged with involvement in the coup attempt on November 25, 2002. The video of his “confession” was broadcast on TV on December 18, 2002. There are testimonies about his beating during his apprehension, and torture in the course of investigation. Convicted on January 21, 2003 by Ashgabat city court under Art. 14-101 p. 2 s. “а,” “б,” “f,” “g,” “h,” “i,” “l”; 129 p. 3; 169 p. 1, 2; 174 p. 2; 176 p. 1; 214 p. 2; 218 p. 1, 2, 3; 231 p. 4 s. “а,” “b”; 235 p. 2 s. “а,” “b”; 254 p. 4 s. “а,” “b”; 271 p. 3; 273 p. 1; 275 p. 1; 287 p. 3 of the CCT. Sentenced to 25 years of imprisonment (5 years in prison, the rest in a strict security colony) with confiscation of property, further settlement in a designated area for 5 years and prohibited from holding financially responsible and leading management positions for 3 years after release.

Current situation: Relatives have no information about his fate and whereabouts after trial. There are controversial and unconfirmed testimonies about his death in prison during the times of President Niyazov. For example, according to one source (“List of 25”), Berdyev died in prison on October 10, 2004. According to another version, he perished during the first year of imprisonment. Former political prisoner Akmuhammet Baikhanov testified that after his transfer to the Ovadan Depe prison he heard from other inmates that Berdyev had died in that prison between 2003 and 2006. According to another source, Berdyev was kept in solitary confinement in Ovadan Depe, and his voice was last heard by a fellow inmate in May or June 2005. In 2007, rumors circulated that Berdyev died from a heart attack. In August 2009, an internet publication published rumors that Berdyev was killed in Ovadan Depe in December 2006, three days after the death of Niyazov. President Gurbanguly Berdymukhamedov, during a visit to Columbia University on September 24, 2007, answering a question about the fate of Boris Shikhmuradov and Batyr Berdyev, said, “I am sure that these people are still alive” (http://www.fergananews.com/news.php?id=7191). This has been the only public statement on the fate of Berdyev by the Turkmen authorities. During a meeting with relatives in 2012, officials stated that Berdyev was alive and that soon they will receive “good news”. However, nothing has happened since then.

9. Berdiev, Orazmukhammet Muhievich

Biography: Former Lieutenant Colonel of the National Security Committee of Turkmenistan. From January 16, 2001 - Deputy Chairman of the National Security Committee. On March 4, 2002, dismissed from service for “serious shortcomings in the work” with deprivation of military ranks and awards. Lived in Ashgabat.

18. Gundogdyev, Yazgeldy Potaevich

Arrest and conviction: Arrested in the end of November 2002 in Ashgabat. Charged with involvement in the coup attempt on November 25, 2002. According to a cellmate, was tortured. The video of his “confession” was broadcast on TV on December 18, 2002. Convicted on January 21, 2003 by Ashgabat city court under Art. 14-101 p. 2 s. “a,” “b,” “f,” “g,” “h,” “i,” “l”; 129 p. 3; 169 p. 1, 2; 174 p. 2; 176 p. 1; 214 p. 2; 218 p. 1, 2, 3; 231 p. 4 s. “a,” “b”; 235 p. 2 s. “a,” “b”; 254 p. 4 s. “a,” “b”; 271 p. 3; 273 p. 1; 275 p. 1; 287 p. 3 of the CCT. Sentenced to 25 years of imprisonment (5 years in prison, the rest in a strict security colony) with confiscation of property, further settlement in a designated area for 5 years and prohibited from holding financially responsible and leading management positions for 3 years after release.

Current situation: No information. There were rumors in 2003 and in August 2005 about his death in prison. In October 2006, the human rights website, “Chronicles of Turkmenistan,” announced that Gundogdyev was released on October 20, 2006 from Ovadan Depe prison under an amnesty and sent in exile to a remote village in the Dashoguz Province. Subsequently, the website’s editor clarified that this information was not confirmed. According to former political prisoner, Akmuhammad Baikhanov, in the spring of 2007 Gundogdyev was being held in the Ovadan Depe prison. In May 2008, a relative of Yazgeldy Gundogdyev told Amnesty International that he was still in prison (http://www.hro.org/node/4550). According to former political prisoner Geldy Kyarizov, in the summer of 2011 a resident of Dashoguz province told him about the death of Gundogdyev in Ovadan Depe prison in 2011 and that the body had allegedly been given to the relatives and buried in Kuneurgench region. However the authenticity of this information is suspect.

48. Shikhmuradov, Boris Orazovich

Biography: Born May 25, 1949 in Ashgabat. Graduated from the Department of Journalism of Moscow State University in 1971. From 1983 to 1986, studied at the diplomatic Academy of the Ministry for Foreign Affairs of the USSR. Between 1971 and 1992, held journalistic and diplomatic positions at the Novosti Information Agency and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the USSR. Worked in Pakistan and India. Since the beginning of 1992, worked for Novosti Russian Information Agency in India. In May 1992, recalled by the government of Turkmenistan. From May 21, 1992 - Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan. From July 6, 1992 - First Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs. From January 7, 1993 – Deputy Chairman of the Cabinet of Ministers of Turkmenistan (responsible for science, education, health and foreign policy; and from March 1994 – for issues of foreign affairs, armed forces and law enforcement agencies.) Between 1994 and March 1995, he was also simultaneously the Chairman of the State Commission on logistics of the defense complex of Turkmenistan and Deputy Chairman of the Council of the Defense and National Security of Turkmenistan. From January 6, 1995 - Deputy Chairman of the Cabinet of Ministers and Minister of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan. From January 8, 1999 - Minister of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan. From July 28, 2000 – Ambassador-at-large, Special Representative of the President for Caspian issues and settlement in Afghanistan. At the same time - Rector of the National Institute of Sports and Tourism of Turkmenistan and President of the National Olympic Committee. From March 11, 2001, to October 30, 2001 – Ambassador to the People’s Republic of China. From 1999 to early 2001, Mr. Shikhmuradov repeatedly asked to resign. In 2001, a criminal case was opened against him with charges of doing damage to the state for more than 30 million USD from illegal sales of arms and financial violations in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. On October 11, 2001, he flew to Moscow, where on November 1, 2001, he announced the creation of an opposition People's Democratic Movement of Turkmenistan. In November 2001, he went to Turkey where he stayed for a year. In November 2002, he flew from Istanbul to Uzbekistan, from where he illegally entered Lebap Province of Turkmenistan, and then arrived in Ashgabat. Has Russian and possibly Turkmen citizenship. Elder brother of Konstantin Shikhmuradov.

Arrest and conviction: Declared wanted in late November 2002. Hiding in Ashgabat for about a month. Arrested on December 25, 2002. Charged with organizing the coup attempt on November 25, 2002. The video of his “confession” was broadcast on TV on December 29, 2002. Subjected to torture. Had only one meeting with his lawyer, Victoria Bagdasaryan, before the trial. The indictment was handed down on December 27, 2002, and written in the Turkmen language, which neither Shikhmuradov nor Bagdasaryan spoke. Convicted on December 29, 2002, by the Supreme Court of Turkmenistan under Art.14-101 p. 2 s. “a,” “b,” “f,” “g,” “h,” “i,” “i’”; 169 p. 1, 2; 174 p. 2; 176 p. 1; 181 p. 2; 182 p. 2 s. “d” ; 187; 195 p. 1; 214 p. 2; 218 p. 1, 2, 3; 229 p. 4 s. “a”; 231 p. 4 s. “a,” “b”; 235 p. 2 s. “a,” “b”; 242 p. 2 s. “b,” “c”; 254 p. 3, p. 4 s. “a”, “b”, “c”; 271 p. 3; 273 p. 1; 275 p. 1; 287 p. 2 (3?); 291 p. 3 of the CCT. Sentenced to 25 years of imprisonment (5 years in prison, the rest in a strict security colony) with confiscation of property, further settlement in a designated area for 5 years and prohibited from holding financially responsible and leading management positions for 3 years after release. The lawyer refused to see family members after the trial. On December 30, 2002, by a unanimous decision of the People’s Council (Halk Maslahaty), the then highest legislative body in Turkmenistan, Boris Shikhmuradov was sentenced to life imprisonment (this punishment was absent in the Turkmen law).
Current situation: Until the middle or end of 2003, he was held in isolation in a detention center of MNS in Ashgabat. Further information about his fate is unavailable. According to an unconfirmed report, in 2005 he was held in the prison in the city of Turkmenbashi. There have been repeated rumors about his death in custody; however, there is no reliable information available. Thus, in May 2009 Amnesty International referred to unconfirmed information about death of Boris Shikhmuradov. In August 2009, an article in the “Gara kurt” blog reported on rumors stating that Boris Shikhmuradov was killed in Ovadan Depe prison three days after the death of Niyazov in December 2006. According to another version, he died in Ovadan Depe in December 2006, not long before the death of Niyazov. President Berdymukhamedov, during a visit to Columbia University on September 24, 2007, answering a question about the fate of Boris Shikhmuradov and Batyr Berdyev, said, “I am sure that these people are still alive” (http://www.fergananews.com/news.php?id=7191). This has been the only public statement on the fate of Boris Shikhmuradov by the Turkmen authorities.

On October 17, 2014, the UN Human Rights Committee issued its view regarding violation of the rights of Boris Shikhmuradov, having reviewed a complaint filed by his wife, Tatiana Shikhmuradova. The Committee determined that Shikhmuradov is the victim of an enforced disappearance and that the government of Turkmenistan failed to protect Boris Shikhmuradov’s life, violated his right to be free from torture, his right to a fair trial, and his right not to be subject to a retroactive penalty. The Committee also found that the government violated Tatiana Shikhmuradova’s right to be free from torture, in light of the suffering she has endured due to the long-term lack of information about her husband. The Committee decided that the government of Turkmenistan is obligated to provide a remedy to Boris Shikhmuradov, including by immediately releasing him and granting him just compensation, or, in the event that he has died, by giving Shikhmuradov’s remains to his family, and that the family should be compensated. Regrettably, neither the UN Committee nor Shikhmuradov’s family have received any response from the government of Turkmenistan, in violation of the Committee’s procedures.

49. Shikhmuradov, Konstantin Orazovich

Arrest and conviction: Arrested on December 7, 2002, initially on charges of extortion and fraud. A few days later charged with involvement in the coup attempt on November 25, 2002. ### 69. Atdaev, Annamurad Nurmuhammedovich

Biography: Born on July 17, 1986, in Arzuv village of Gyavers District of Ahal Province. Master of Sports in freestyle wrestling. In 2008-2009 he studied at the Department of Law of the Grodno State University in Belarus. Then moved to Cairo (Egypt), where he graduated from the “Fajr” school of Arabic language and then entered the University of Al-Azhar. At the beginning of March 2016, he was forced to return to Turkmenistan to re-issue his passport. After his return, repeatedly interrogated by the Ministry of National Security, whose employees suggested that he cooperate with them as an agent. He was denied travel outside the country, and an invitation for his family, who are in Russia, was also denied. Lived in Ashgabat.

Arrest and conviction: Arrested on September 27, 2016 on charges of administrative offense (minor hooliganism). Later charged with criminal involvement in an extremist Islamic group. 111. Annaniyazov, Gulgeldy

Biography: Born August 22, 1960 in the village of Keshi in Ashgabat District of Akhal Province. In 1979-1981 served in the Soviet Armed Forces in Germany. Worked in gas extraction, as a cook, and as deputy economic director of a circus. After the beginning of perestroika, tried to organize cooperatives and small businesses. Became well known as an organizer of an anti-government demonstration on July 12, 1995 in Ashgabat. Detained eight days later. Was tortured. Convicted on January 4, 1996 by the Supreme Court of Turkmenistan under Art. 87 p. 1; 15-106 p. 4, 6; 117 p. 1; 17-236 p. 2; 249 p. 1; 257 p. 1; 257.1 p. 1; 259 p. 3 of the Criminal Code of the Turkmen SSR. Sentenced to 15 years of imprisonment (5 years in prison, the rest in a high security colony) with confiscation of property. Freed in January 1999 under amnesty. Summer 2002 went to Moscow (via Kazakhstan) with someone else’s passport to meet with leaders of the opposition. During his second trip he was detained on September 1, 2002 at border control at Domodedovo airport in Moscow and on the next day was sent to Kazakhstan, where he was held in custody for more than three months. In December 2002 with the assistance of UNHCR he was given asylum in Norway.

Arrest and conviction: June 23, 2008 returned to Turkmenistan, crossing the border with Kazakhstan illegally. Arrested on June 24, 2008 at his parents’ home near Ashgabat. According to official information, provided to the Human Rights Committee of the UN by the government of Turkmenistan in October 2016, Annaniyazov was convicted on October 7, 2008 by the Supreme Court of Turkmenistan under Art. 214 p. 2 (illegal crossing of a border) and 217 p. 2 (abduction of documents) of the CCT. Sentenced to 11 years of imprisonment.

Current situation: Relatives have no confirmed information about Annaniyazov since the moment of his arrest. According to unconfirmed information, after sentencing he was held in a prison in Turkmenbashi. In 2009 he was able to unofficially transfer a note saying that he was in Ovadan Depe prison. In August 2013, the Working Group on Enforced or Involuntary Disappearances of the UN called Annaniyazov’s imprisonment a violation of international human rights norms and called for his release (A/HRC/WGAD/2013/22). On September 21, 2015 a representative of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Turkmenistan, speaking at the HDIM meeting of the OSCE in Warsaw, stated that Annaniyazov had been moved to a colony in Tedjen, where his relatives could visit him. This information has not been confirmed by independent sources. In November 2017 a representative of the government of Turkmenistan said that Annaniyazov’s relatives had been offered to visit him but they allegedly did not use this opportunity.

112. Nepeskuliev, Saparmamed

Working Group on Arbitrary Detention published its opinion and designated Mr. Nepeskuliev’s detention as “arbitrary” because he “has been held incommunicado with no access to a legal representative; he was deprived of his right to legal assistance of his own choosing” and he “has been deprived of liberty for having peacefully exercised his right to freedom of expression.” (http://www.ohchr.org/Documents/Issues/Detention/Opinions2015AUV/Opinion%20202015%2040_Turkmenistan_Nepeskuliev_AUV%20final.pdf).

Current situation: On August 5, 2016, the OSCE Representative for Freedom of the Media (OSCE RFoM) received the reply from the government of Turkmenistan according to which after the trial Nepeskuliev was not sent to a colony but was serving his sentence in a pre-trial detention center, namely detention facility BL-D/5, where he was doing “household duties.” According to official data, he received three short-term visits by his sister (the last in March 2016), and four food parcels (the last in March 2016). On July 25, 2016, he was admitted to the medical facility MR-K/15 with the following diagnosis: “exacerbation of peptic ulcer disease, hypovitaminosis, protein-vitamin insufficiency, cachexia, secondary chronic anemia.” Nepeskuliev’s admittance to the medical facility took place only after the government received the inquiry from OSCE RFoM. On the following requests from OSCE RFoM (November 2016), UN Committee against Torture (June 2016), statement of the European Union statement at the meeting of the OSCE Permanent Council on March 2, 2017, Turkmenistan's government has not provided any new information about the whereabouts and state of health of Nepeskuliev.
